1. The UB (Urząd Bezpieczeństwa, political police) installation in Poznan is the most important one in western Poland for questions concerning refugees and border-crossers. It is subordinate to the UB, Katowice. The source of this report knows of the following sections in the main building of the UB in Katowice:
 - a. Border Questioning
 - b. Political Parties
 - c. Sabotage
 - d. Counter-intelligence
2. In Poznan, the UB court, prison, public prosecutor, and highest court authority are located in a three-story building with a red tile roof, on Kochanowskiego Street. Kochanowskiego Street is blocked off and only persons with passes may enter it. The UB area is patrolled by between 600 and 700 men. Some of them are in uniform, some in civilian clothes.
3. The Koszary Powszechnej Organizacji "Sluzba Polska", Komenda "SP" i Komenda M.O. (Milicja Obywatelska), i.e. the barracks of the Work Service and of the M.O., is located in a reddish two-story building in Poznan and houses 250 men between the ages of 16 and 21 who are active in the Work Service, 50 men of the Militia, and about 40 military persons.
